who are we?

brand story

along.co was built on the belief that creative work should feel thoughtful, collaborative & lasting. we believe that it should not just stop at one project. instead, we want to go on a journey with you – bringing your ideas to life, going through hurdles with you, being that ‘someone’ you can count on. most importantly, we want to grow with you through every stage of your journey.

growth isn’t straightforward, & we get that. designed with small & growing businesses in mind, we focus on becoming a steady creative partner, creating work that feels thoughtful & unique to you.

we hope that by staying alongside you through every stage of your growth – challenges, changes, milestones – we create work that not only supports you today, but where you hope to be in the future.

a + long + co

a: our presence; being there with you long: our long-term commitment & growth with you

co: cooperating, collaborating & working together with you we want to be a collaborative creative partner for the long-run.

target audience

along.co targets small & growing businesses /SMEs/ as we want to help businesses who wish to grow & thrive in their respective industries.

brand core ideas: 3 'co's

co//laborative

co/ntinuous

co/mmunication

we believe that meaningful creative work is built through trust, consistency & long-term relationships.

and that can only be done through close co//laboration, thoughtful co/mmunication & making the co/ntinuous effort to understand you, be with you & work with you.

brand positioning

along.co positions ourselves as a dependable creative partner for SMEs, focusing on long-term collaboration, thoughtful design & steady business growth.

brand purpose

to grow alongside businesses through long-term creative partnerships.

we exist to help SMEs navigate through their growth journey, challenges & change through thoughtful creative work & dependable collaboration.

brand personality

along.co is a creative agency that is

- grounded
- thoughtful
- dependable
- collaborative
- sincere

visual identity.

colour palette

dark jungle green /#20331d/ represents stability, growth & dependability. this deep green tone reflects along.co's grounded & long-term approach towards creative partnership, while conveying calm confidence & trust.

cream /#faf4d3/ was chosen as it brings warmth & softness to the brand identity. it creates a more approachable & human feeling, balancing the darker colours while allowing along.co to feel thoughtful & welcoming.

symbolising steady progress & collaboration, muted moss green /#50653d/ is chosen as it adds a sense of growth and adaptability. this reflects along.co's role in supporting businesses, no matter big or small, through different stages of their journey.

used to create clarity, openness & a breathing space, white /#ffffff/ reinforces along.co's clean & thoughtful approach. this allows communication & design elements to feel simple and accessible. it also is used when needed for professionalism or particular circumstances.

finally, black /#000000/ is used to represent professionalism, clarity & structure. it provides contrast and balance with along.co's system, helping key information feel strong, dependable & timeless.

Satoshi Bold

used for brand logo

chosen for its modern yet approachable appearance, Satoshi Bold reflects along.co's dependable & quietly confident personality. Its clean & structured appearance communicates stability and professionalism, while its subtle softness keeps the brand approachable & human. the font reflects along.co's personality as a creative partner that is confident without feeling too corporate nor intimidating.

Inter

used for text /bold for headings or to highlight something, regular for normal text/

supporting the brand with its readability & simplicity, Inter's clean & functional design complements Satoshi Bold without competing for attention, creating a balanced & cohesive typographic system. its simplicity reinforces along.co's grounded & thoughtful personality, while ensuring information feels clear, accessible & easy to engage with. together with Satoshi Bold, it helps create a visual balance between personality & functionality, reflecting along.co's collaborative & long-term approach.

note: never use capital letters /unless needed e.g. emails/

we want to feel approachable, grounded & collaborative, as if we are your friend. lowercase typography is hence used, creating a softer visual tone which reflects our human & long-term approach towards working with you. uppercase typography is only used in formal or functional context, such as emails, where clarity & practicality are important.

rationale

small & growing businesses /SMEs/ being along.co's target audience isn't for no reason. we know that being a small business & wanting to grow is difficult in today's world, especially with many other competitors who may be big in the industry, making it harder for you to grow. hence, we want to help you in growing & making your dreams & ideas come true. we hope that by working with you, bringing you ideas into life, helping you overcome the hurdles you meet, that you would grow & thrive in your respective industry as well.

our visual identity was designed to reflect our core belief in long-term creative partnership & collaboration. each design decision was guided by the idea of growing alongside businesses through different stages of your journey, creating a brand system which feels dependable, thoughtful & human. instead of relying on trend-driven visuals, our identity focuses on clarity, warmth & continuity, building trust & long-term relevance.

along.co positions itself as a steady creative partner for small & growing businesses, which is reflected through our grounded colour palette, approachable typography & connected visual elements. the usage of earthy greens & warm neutrals communicates stability, growth & sincerity, while the combination of Satoshi Bold & Inter balances confidence with accessibility. lowercase typography helps further soften the brand's tone, allowing for communication to feel more collaborative & approachable rather than overly formal & corporate.

along.co uses the infinity sign & circles, reinforcing the idea of connection, continuity & ongoing support. these graphic elements symbolises long-term relationships & collaborative growth. these are supported by the authentic & process-focused imagery style, creating a cohesive identity that reflects along.co's role as a calm, dependable creative partner for the long run.
